Palm Springs Historic Site Preservation Board to Present
2nd Annual National Preservation Month Celebration on Sunday, May 3

April 23, 2015

The City of Palm Springs Historic Site Preservation Board will present its 2nd Annual National Preservation Month Celebration and Symposium, “The Art of Preservation: Is It Worth It?” on Sunday, May 3.

Registration kicks off at 1:30 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, (Temple Isaiah), located at 332 W. Alejo Road followed by films and visits with preservation organizations from 2 p.m. – 3 p.m. A panel discussion, titled “Preservation Behind the Scenes” kicks off at 3:30 p.m., featuring local experts Leo Marmol, Peter Moruzzi, Beth Harris and Sidney Williams.

In addition, five tours will also be available to take participants through historic neighborhoods and business districts along with a tour of the historic Frances Stevens campus and the Triada Hotel, formerly the Spanish Inn.

The celebration will wrap up with a 6 p.m. After Party at historic O’Donnell Golf Club in downtown Palm Springs.

The event is free, but reservations are required. To sign up, go to www.EventBrite.com and write in HSPB in the search field.
